Time, 24½, 49½, 1:00.

Winner—B. c. by Himyar—Santine. Start fair. Won pulled up. Himyar is very fast. He galloped throughout. Composer is a crack. So is The Burlington Route. The Lady in Blue ran well. Chappaqua and Gen-shafter also ran remarkably well. The big field makes the form unreliable except as to the last four. They are above the average.

Scratched—Strangest, 115; Gray Jacques, 115.

Himyar, place, 7 to 10; show, 2 to 5. Composer, place, 6 to 1; show, 3 to 1. The Lady in Blue show, 4 to 5.

Time, 24, 49, 1:02½, 1:15½, 1:41½, 1:47½.

Winners—Alice Farley, ch. f. by Spendthrift—Margery. Maximo Gomez, ch. c. by Victory—Quesal.

Start good. Alice Farley and Maximo Gomez ran a high class race and are in their best form. Lady Mitchell tired badly after being made much use of in the first part. She is probably not up to the distance and dislikes weight. She is very good and will do to watch. Glonone ran his race. George Keene will do better at Gravesend. He was eased at the end. Laverock wants a long race and apparently favors light weight.

Scratched—Flonono, 126; Endeavor, 100.

Alice Farley, place, 6 to 5; show, 3 to 5. Maximo Gomez, place, 3 to 1; show, 8 to 5; Lady Mitchell, show, 6 to 5.

8379 THIRD RACE—Futurity Course. (170 feet short of 3-4 mile.) 2-year-olds. The Great Eastern Handicap. $5,000 guaranteed.

Time, 23½, 48, 1:00½, 1:09½.

Winner—Blk. f. by Kantaka—Quenoio.

Start fair. Won easily. Black Venus was much the best apparently, but she got the best ride and was lucky at the start and throughout the race. She is a sure enough crack. It was a wonderful race from a time standpoint. Ethelbert ran impressively under trying conditions. Martimas was on the rail, lucky and well handled. His performance stamps him to be of high class. Manuel is improving greatly. He looks like a good one, favors a route and should win soon. He is possibly the best maiden in training. Dr. Eichberg ran finely. So did Satirist, who chased the winner for a half mile. Ways and Means and Autumn were out of the race from the start.

Scratched—Mr. Clay, 115; His Lordship, 107; Frohsinn, 117; Ahom, 114.

Black Venus, place, 4 to 5. Ethelbert, place, 5 to 2; show, 7 to 5. Martimas, show, 4 to 5.

Winner—B. c. by Falsetto—Cachuca.

Start good. Won driving. George Boyd is a rare stayer. So is The Friar, and with Sloan on the latter the result would have been reversed. Sir Vassar is in splendid shape and should do well over the hurdles at Gravesend. Mirthful broke down at one and one-half miles when he appeared to be galloping and easily the best horse.

8381 FIFTH RACE—7-8 Mile. $550 added. 3-year-olds and upward. Selling.

Winner—B. c. by Duke of Magenta—Fair Barbarian.

Start fair. Won handily. Ten spot was the best today apparently. He was on the rail and sailed away in front, not receiving the attention from Sloan that he deserved. Tom Collins ran an honest race. L'Alouette stopped the last quarter. This race places her among the common ones. She had no excuses. Orion lacked speed throughout. Oxnard closed strong and wants a longer race. Manassas ran poorly. So did Lord Zeni. Nana H was short. Loiterer ran badly.

Scratched—St. Callatine, 108; Mount Washington, 105; Rossifer, 105; Charentus, 105; Slasher 103; Ortolan, 101.

Ten Spot, place, 20 to 1; show, 10 to 1. Tom Collins, place, 3 to 5. L'Alouette, show, 1 to 2.

Time, 2:52.

Winner—Br. h. by Woodlands—Fannie Moore.

Start good. Won handily. Wood Pigeon got a judicious ride. It was not so with Olindo. Both are good. Baby Bill is very unreliable. Governor Budd ran well, but was handled as if in a sprint race. Rheinstrom is good, but cannot go the full course apparently. Watch him over a shorter distance and especially in deep going.

Scratched—Widower, 135.

Wood Pigeon, place, 1 to 2. Olindo, place, 4 to 5. Baby Bill, show, 24 to 1.

JOCKEY BARRETT KILLED.

NEW YORK, September 10—A. Barrett, the well known western jockey, had the mount on St. Lorenzo in the Great Eastern handicap at Sheephead Bay today, and in making the turn into the home stretch there was considerable crowding. The colt here crossed his legs and threw Barrett and fell on him. He was carried off the track in an unconscious condition, and died from his injuries at the King's County Hospital in Brooklyn at 10 o'clock tonight.

HAWTHORNE RACING.

An October-like day with high flying clouds and a strong wind confronted the large Saturday crowd at Hawthorne, where was provided a card of seven races. There were engaged horses of such quality that the sport could not fail to delight, the more especially as there was an absence of the old familiar race for maidens, as also that for cheap two-year-olds, and again the fields were not unwieldy. The pleasure seeker has "ducked" the parks for good, and his parasite, the vendor of crackerjack, no longer "cuts a Z" in the bank rolls of doting papas. Therefore is increased the Saturday attendance at racetracks, and yesterday might be seen citizens backing the horses who for months hitherto have been engrossed in half-holiday play with wives and babies. The track was at its best.

For the star event of the day the Hawthorne Stakes, six furlongs, for two-year-olds, penalties and allowances, worth $1,195 to the winner, $200 to second and $100 to third, there came to the post only one youngster carrying weight for age i.e. Sea Lion. Jinks, by the conditions of the race, had eight pounds off, and coupled with her stable companion Survivor, was made a 6 to 5 favorite, Jolly Roger and Sea Lion opening at 3 to 1 each. The scratching of Miss Marion removed a dangerous factor, but the loss of Stamina was more than offset by the added starter Formero, as there is always a chance for such a high class colt to regain his best form. The craze for putting little Reiff on all kinds of horses may some day result in a serious accident. Formero ran off with him when on his way to the post, but the game midget stopped the rank colt, who for the first time lately ran in blinkers. Then Formero ran through and broke the barrier. The race was a farce. Thorpe on Jinks beat the gate and at once sailed away with a commanding lead, which could have been made still greater at any time, as the filly had the speed of the party. Jinks won away off. Formero, off second, landed in the place by many lengths. Survivor, third, had a race for a time with Jolly Roger. Fontainebleu was left standing still at the post, and First Tenor might as well have been. An outsider, fresh to the sight of the race, as Jinks was making the last turn, would have said: "There is a lot of horses working with the colors up," and never have dreamed that a stake race was being run.

The nineteen regular and two field bookmakers were made happy when Alleviate, demonstrating that all ideas of weight are at times "knocked silly" by "class," crossed the wire the winner of the first race. Dave Waldo had been hopped on as a good thing, regardless of the fact that a Vancamp was up. (Poor horse that is ever ridden by a Van this or that, and is so rendered as nervous as the Roman in fear of the Barbarian). Abe Furst was the bookmakers' favorite while those knowing Dave Waldo's quitting abilities took the chance of Montgomery splitting the pair. There was no one to back Alleviate—she at the worst of weights—save the piker of good memory, who remembered her as a great two-year-old. To a splendid start, Alleviate in the rear, Dave Waldo made play and set a merry pace. Montgomery and Abe Furst being close up when the last bend was rounded. Here Alleviate, only two lengths away, was said by astute horsemen to be dangerous. Sydney Paget's Ruskin was not near enough to be hit with a squirrel rifle. Clear into the last sixteenth the order was the same and here Dave Waldo seemed running well within himself, but an instant later his jockey reached for his bat, and before he raised it Abe Furst was at the favorite's saddle. Three jumps more and the lead was Abe Furst's but when within thirty yards of the wire the trio of leaders were "digging post holes" so that Alleviate, with even stride, passed on and won the race handily. Abe Furst was second and Dave Waldo third. The scratching of Imp and Monk Wayman was deplored, yet it is conjectural whether or not their absence did any harm. Colonel W. E. Applegate had a complimentary bet on Alleviate.

Empress Josephine acted viciously at the post before the first race, and, being on the inside, got off none too well. Cyril and Inuendo ran first and second to the betting ring, where the latter went on and won easily from Empress Josephine, who was third at the head of the home stretch, and never worse than fourth. Cyril finished third and Mistletoe, who was running strongly on the end, fourth. Lucid was third for five-eighths, then dropped back, landing "absolutely."

The dash of one and one-half miles produced spirited betting. Treachery opened the favorite at 7 to 5, was supplanted by Hosi, but eventually the price "9 to 5, take your pick," obtained. The "Wagner boys" played their horse Croesus high and low, while "Virginia" Bradley's friends bet heavily on Plantain. Oelian, the outsider, made the pace for the first half, Hosi and Plantain being next, all others close up except Valid, already out of it. Treachery, who had left the post in the second division, began to move to the leaders as the starting point was neared and as here Plantain began to weaken (it may be that Slack, in trying to place his mount "choked down" his horse) Hosi and Croesus were all that were left for Galen Brown's mare to beat. She soon went to the front and into the homestretch led by several lengths. Here Hosi got away from Croesus, and, coming on, at the betting ring was so close to Treachery—upon which J. Reiff had been loafing—that the whip was necessary to stir her up, but a few mild welts and Treachery ran home a comfortable distance to the good. Croesus was a fair third; the others pulled up or beaten off.

The steeplechase proved that Ed Corrigan can still win jumping races, for which style of sport he has ever evinced so marked a predilection. Jezebel was the easiest of winners after "lying off" until the last half mile. She was well ridden by Ellison. Michael G. in taking the water jump, the five horses being bunched, was crowded against the right wing. The clatter of his hoof against the boards was ominous of a serious accident, but although horse and rider fell in a heap both at once regained their feet. J. Burns, who rode Michael G., lost his stirrup in the jerk which his horse gave in leaving the post and this probably caused the fall, not one of the starters, but that at some stage flattered his backers unless it was Troil, who failed to run up to expectations. Uncle Jim took the first fence in the lead but Nobilis went on and led over the next six obstacles, where he retired and Uncle Jim resumed command. Here Jezebel was fourth, about four lengths behind Uncle Jim, but Corrigan's colors and Tom Hurns' were mixed over the second last jump, and from this on the race belonged to the "Master of Hawthorne," Jezebel winning with her head swinging from Nobilis, who handily beat Uncle Jim.

To a somewhat straggling start Aunt Mary broke quickest in the sixth race, attended by Little Alarm, and the pair raced right away from the others. The long shot led to the last hundred yards, when J. Reiff, for whom it had been a gala day, sent Little Alarm on and won the race cleverly from Lady Callahan, she beating Aunt Mary two lengths. Sardonic was just behind the third horse. It begins to look as if jockeys like Bobby Hothersall and J. Reiff were fancied by horses because of their "light hands." Animals get tired of being gee-hawed about.

Her Favor is the unluckiest thing on four legs in and around Chicago. She alone of the horses in the last race stood quietly at the post, and then when the others got tired of dancing and lined up, she was turning sideways and jostled and thrown back. When Friar John and Afamada led around the first turn J. Reiff had got Her Favor straightened up, but she was lengths back of all the horses, and not until the half had been passed did she catch the last of the bunch. Now showing wonderful speed, she ran around the others and struck into the straight on even terms with Afamada. Coming on gamely, she led 150 yards out, but here Thorpe on the favorite hooked up with the wee Reiff, and, of course, outriding him to the wire is a drive, Friar John was first by a neck. Afamada was a fair third and Molo was fairly close. The race was always amongst the first three horses. It was almost dark, when at 6:10, the last race was finished.

Spirituelle is in a race Monday with twelve pounds off, although this crack filly of T. C. McDowell's has started twelve times, winning eight and being second the other four. The conditions call for allowances for horses not having won a race since a certain date. It is thus that a race track program maker is occasionally tripped up.

Time, 1:34, 25, 37½, 49½, 1:02½, 1:15½.

Winner—B. f. by Argyle—Peradventure.
Post 1 minute. Start good. Won handily after an early drive; the next two were under keen pressure. Alleviate was best ridden and this helped a lot to win. The filly had all the worst of the weights and Conley placed her nicely the first part of the journey. He made his run at the right time and saved ground by skinning the rails on the stretch turn. ABE FURST ran a fair race. He was on the outside and took the long route. The ride on Dave Waldo was bad. Instead of going on about his business, Vancamp looked around repeatedly in the stretch. The colt is an awful quitter and such handling made him all the more ready to stop. Montgomery did not have his usual turn of speed but ran a fair race. Hart, on Ruskin, was hit in the eye and had to pull up.
Scratched—Count Fonso, 114; Imp, 109; Monk Wayman, 116.
Alleviate, place, 5 to 1; show, even. ABE FURST, place, 2 to 5.

8397 SECOND RACE—1 Mile. 3-year-olds. Selling. Purse $400; value to winner $300; $75 to second; $25 to third.

Time, 1:34, 26, 38½, 50½, 1:03, 1:16, 1:42.

Winner—B. c. by Jim Gore—Mischievous.
Post 5 minutes. Start good. Won driving and out to the last ounce. The next two were driving just as hard. Inuendo ran a game race. He was hard ridden the last quarter and stood it gamely, although he bore in somewhat. Empress Josephine perhaps should have won. McDonald was busy with the whip, but had little or no hold of the filly's head through the stretch. At one time she got to Inuendo, but weakened again right at the end. Cyril used what speed he had early and was swerving the last sixteenth. Mistleton made up some ground. He must be a bad colt or he could have beaten this kind. Lucid showed speed, but as usual sulked. It was a very bad lot.

Scratched—Beau Monde, 103; Sybaris, 103.
Overweights—Lucid, 2 pounds; Mistleton, 4; Empress Josephine, 2.

Winner—B. f. by Albert—Hoodoo.
Post 5 minutes. Start poor. Won eased up; second hand ridden; third and fourth driving hard. Jinks was undoubtedly the best, but she got such a nice start it would hardly have been possible for her to have been beaten. This filly likes weight off and is best on a fast track, although she can run on a soft track. Formero ran a fair race. In fact, it was a great improvement over his previous one. Survivor ran an even race. He stepped every quarter about alike, and Bloss seemed satisfied as long as Jinks was galloping in front. Sea Lion, off poorly, was never urged. The same can be said of First Tenor.

Scratched—Stamina, 110; Miss Marion, 115.

Winner—B. m. by Hanover—Deceit.
Post 3 minutes. Start good. Won driving and staggering; second driving and coming strong Third out to the last ounce. Treachery was best ridden. Reiff saved all the ground possible. He made his run too at the right time and stole a march on McNickie who rode Hosi. The latter was perhaps the best and had McNickie made his run when Treachery did the chances are he would have won. Croesus was doing his best all the way. He seems to be of no account whatever. Evidently Plantain's hard race Friday did him no good. He did not have his usual amount of speed and ran far below the notch. The last two were outclassed.

Overweights—Valid, 3 pounds.
Treachery, place, 3 to 5. Hosi, place, 3 to 5. Croesus, even.

Time, 3:24.

Winner—Ch. f. by St. Saviour—Sardonyx.
Off at first break. Start good. Won easily; the next two were eased up. Jezebel fenced well and was nicely ridden. Ellison rated the filly nicely and laid in about the same place all the way. The same ride would have won on Uncle Jim to a certainty. Desota on the latter seemed green in the saddle and naturally gave an inferior exhibition on the old gelding. Uncle Jim had all of his speed and cleared the obstructions nicely. Nobilis fenced well, was well handled and had no excuses, but simply stopped under the weight. The boy on Michael G. escaped luckily. He got a nasty fall over the water jump. Troil never looked dangerous.
Jezebel, place, 3 to 2; Nobilis, place, 2½ to 1.

Winner—B. f. by Little Minch—Alarming.
Post 5 minutes. Start good. Won driving to the limit; the next three were driving just as hard. Little Alarm was extremely lucky. She always had a clear path and was cleverly handled throughout. It looked a sixteenth out as though Lady Callahan would surely beat her, but the filly came again right at the end. Lady Callahan made up a lot of ground. She weakened though in the last fifty yards. Had she been a game filly she would have beaten the winner. Aunt Mary ran a surprisingly good race. She had a lot of speed and stood the closing drive gamely. It was only the weight that stopped her. Sardonic had too much ground to make up and could not perform the task. The others were outclassed and beaten off.

Scratched—Branch, 98; Bliss Rucker, 111; Friskal, 104; Winslow, 104; Majesta, 114.
Overweights—Sardonic, 2½ pounds.

Winner—B. c. by Vagabond—Acra.
Post 7 minutes. Start good. Won in the hardest kind of a drive; the next three were extremely busy. Her Favor was undoubtedly the best. With clear sailing she could not possibly have lost. The filly was slow to break and Reiff, in an attempt to get through on the first turn, was sharply cut off. He then took the filly to the outside and ran all around the field. He used bad judgment in making up ground so fast, but allowances must be made for so small a boy. Friar John was always in a good position and nicely ridden. Thorpe, though, put himself out to bump Her Favor at the head of the stretch. Reiff claimed foul against him but it was not allowed. Afamada dislikes a route. Molo wants a soft track. So does Wilson. Locust Blossom did not run her race.

Friar John, place, 7 to 10; show, 3 to 10. Her Favor, place, 6 to 5; show, 3 to 5. Afamada, show, even.
